Happy 2023!

We can't wait to see what this year has in store for our BFFE family

Join us at the World of Pets Expo on January 27th - 29th!

This is the largest consumer pet show on the East Coast, located at the Maryland State Fairgrounds in Timonium. We'll be at booths 103-104 to give away some goodies, and you can bring your whole family to enjoy the fun events and displays. Be sure to come watch our amazing Dog Training Demo to show our industry-leading methods at 1:00pm on the 28th!

Keep your dog mentally and physically fit this winter!

Now that it's winter, it's difficult to get in your dog's usual walks or playtime in the yard at home. However, dogs live longer and happier lives when they are mentally and physically fit. At BFFE, we have spacious indoor play areas for your pup to physically exercise and have a blast, as well as a wide variety of enrichment activities for mental exercise. Bring your pup to daycare on those cold winter days!

Did you get a new puppy during the holidays? Time to start training!

We proudly offer a Puppy Tales Program which is specifically for puppies under 6 months old. During this program, your puppy will learn foundational commands and behaviors, and you'll learn how to continue these behaviors at home! We train both the pup and the pet parent skills you'll be able to use throughout the rest of your lives to enrich and enhance the relationship between you and your pup. Give us a call to get booked for training!

'Tis the season of dry skin!

Bring your pup in for a moisturizing and soothing spa day to relieve their dry, itchy skin. We use the best grooming products, including hypoallergenic products for sensitive skin. Plus, what's better than a warm bath on a cold winter day? Give us a call to book your pup's spa day!

Don't forget to use your VIP points!

VIP clients are those who spend over $4,500 in the calendar year. Ask the front desk or give us a call to check how many points you have on your account so you can redeem them for cash during your next visit!
