CONTAGIOUS ILLNESS POLICY

We hope this never happens, but if your pup appears sick with a contagious illness, they will be isolated, and you will be contacted to pick them up to continue care at home. They cannot return to Best Friends Fur Ever until they have been examined by a licensed veterinarian and deemed to not be contagious to other dogs. Charges for your pet's stay will continue to accrue until your pet is discharged. No additional services or outings into community areas will occur.

Examples of contagious illness include, but are not limited to the following:

Upper Respiratory Illness	Canine Papilloma Virus	Intestinal Parasites	Conjunctivitis	Fleas	etc.
---------------------------	------------------------	----------------------	----------------	-------	------

Isolation Charge of $100 per day – Will be incurred in the rare event a pet is not able to be picked up immediately that is suspected of having any type of a contagious illness or virus. Isolation charge in addition to regular charges

Best Friends Fur Ever's Pet Care Agreement asks for you to provide us one or more emergency contacts in the area that are authorized to pick up and keep your pet, as well as make decisions for your pet should you not be able to be reached or are unable to pick up. All charges incurred by your pet must be paid when the pet leaves our care.
